

from Engineer McRee, describing his plans for rescuing the Arctic colonists.
Railroad Interests.—The English at Stratford.
Dredging at a Coal Mine.
Water Meter Frauds.—Full account of the arrest of Inspector Davison A. Aiken and an interview with Commissioner of Police on the subject.

—Full account of the races at Sheepshead Bay, St. Julian's last trotting, baseball games and other events.
Society.—Topics of the week in fashionable circles in the city and vicinity.

The Garfield Movement.—Mr. Calvert Vaux's choice of site in Lake County.

Paying Taxes Under Protest.—Account of the disbursement and arrest of a son of Smith M. Weed, and his companion.

Home Interests.—Prices and condition of provisions in the local markets.

Local Miscellany.—Report by TRIBUNE reporters of various of the day in this city and vicinity.

National Guard.—A bill to arm it.

Labor Disputes Curbed by Arbitration.

A Victim of an Old Game.

Improving the Ambulance Service.

Working to Settle Troubles.

Ex-Servicemen.—Troubles.

Reviewers.—Review, with extracts, of Mr. William D. Howells's new novel, "A Woman's Reason," Ivan Turgenieff's "The Idiot," Théophile's Paris correspondent on the life, works, beliefs and character of great Russian novelists.

Foreign Correspondents.—Letter from a special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE, giving picturesque views of the customs and manners of the members of Mr. Howells's excursion party in the Yellowstone Park.

A Southern Rip Van Winkle.—Letter from a correspondent, dealing with the old-time Alabama plantation where slaves are still held, where the result of the rebellion is unknown, and where no communication whatever has been had with the outside world—save through the writer's letters.

John Bull and His Island.—Letter from THE TRIBUNE'S Paris correspondent, giving a full account, and extracts of that extraordinary book, "John Bull et son fils," which has given England and France food for so much speculation and merriment.

Stories of New-Yorkers.—Half-a-dozen "interesting" experiences of field and adventure, gleaned from out-of-the-way fields by reporters of THE TRIBUNE, national news and notices of the day, men and things the country reads.

An Ambitious Work.—Another instalment of the continuing novel of New-York society written by Edgar Fawcett, in THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE.

Latin Rebels at Wittenberg.

Mr. Sprague's Popular Author.

French Poems.

Faith Behind the Footlights.

Following is a condensed summary of leading news topics:

FOREIGN.—Emperor William and the royal guests were in the Prussian military manoeuvres on Saturday. — The surrender of Cetewayo was demanded by the Colonial authorities. — Christiane Nilsson sang for New-York. — President speaks will address meetings of the Irish National League in America. — Admiral Cambet has declined the offer of civil and military authority for France in Tonquin.

MOSCOW.—Edward Avery will preside at the Massachusetts Democratic Convention. — Four men were drowned in a coal mine near Wilkesboro on Saturday. — The bridge closed at Covington.

THE MILITARY SERVICE prediction of frosts in the Northwest was not fulfilled Friday night. — Gen. Devin advanced at Chicago.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.—David E. Aiken, an inspector of water-meters, was arrested on Saturday on suspicion of complicity in the Boston Bank frauds. — The Boston Mediator, Eagle, Breeze and Chronicle won the race at Sheepshead Bay.

More delegates to the Buffalo Convention were elected. — The Rev. Dr. E. F. Hatfield died at Summit, N. J. — The Chicago Baseball nine defeated the New-York team.

Knights of Labor.—It is their order who is in danger of disruption. — An Oregon doctor with the victim of confidence men. — Gold value of the legal tender silver dollar (412½ grains), $5.23 cents. — Stocks with more or less activity generally were lower and closed weak.

Copies of the paper—twelve pages, as usual—may still be obtained at the counting-room of THE TRIBUNE or by mail. Price 3 cents.

THE MONEY MARKET.

SUNDAY, Sept. 23.—P. M.

The Custom House returns of the foreign movements of merchandise at New-York last week show smaller movements in both exports and imports than did those of the corresponding weeks of 1882 and 1881, and the balance for last week shows no appreciable favorable comparison with the week of last year and a decidedly unfavorable comparison with the week of 1881. The imports last week ($9,972,001) were $231,295 smaller than for the week of 1882, and were $86,384 smaller than for the week of 1881. The exports last week ($7,053,917) were $107,294 less than for the week of 1882, and were $1,291,722 smaller than for the week of 1881. The merchandise and specie imports and exports for the thirty-eight weeks of this year have been as follows:

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS FROM JANUARY 1 TO DATE.

MERCHANDISE.

1881. 1882. 1883.

Imports.....$32,000,483 $37,247,647 $35,739,823

Exports.....27,090,833 24,437,204 25,248,645

Imports in excess of exports.....$41,562,559 $31,937,441 $33,324,449

Specie.....$45,416,060 $2,584,722 $11,529,162

Exports.....423,382 1,400 11,428

Imports in excess of exports.....$36,992,678 $0 90,603

Exports in excess of imports.....$40,231,137

CLOSING PRICES OF BOSTON STOCKS.

BOSTON, Saturday, Sept. 22, 1883.

Yesterdays' Ticker. Yesterday's Ticker.

Water Power.....$175 N.Y. & Environs 232 1/2

Brown Coal.....55 Ohio 119

A. & P. Co. 119

Railroad power.....15

Gas Co. 119

Land Grant & Inc. 22

Bull. Texas 22

Gold Bull. 22

Gas Co. 22

Am. Safe Deposit 10

Am. Safe Deposit 10

Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal 12½

Ed. El. Light 12½

Way Manufacturing 7½

L. & G. W. Indus. 38

Gas & Mfrs. 41

Am. Safe Deposit 10

Gas & Mfrs. 41

Gas & Mfrs. 41